Statesman Journal Published 3:25 PM EST Jan 22, 2019 Salem police are working to extract a suspected burglar after he broke into a home near North Salem High School Tuesday morning. The incident was sparked after a man, later identified as Kenneth Ketchem, 29, of Salem, allegedly breaking broke into several homes in the area, Salem police spokesman Lt. Treven Upkes said. While attempting to break into a residence, Ketchem was confronted by a homeowner. During the confrontation, Ketchem told the homeowner he had a gun. After Salem officers responded to the scene, Ketchem ran into another home on the 1000 block of

Lockdown lifted, Summer Street closed for police activity in the Grant neighborhood

 JANUARY 22, 2019  STATESMANJOURNAL  LEAVE A COMMENT

David Davis Salem Statesman Journal

Published 1:02 PM EST Jan 22, 2019 Police activity in the Grant Neighborhood had led to the lockdown of North Salem High School and Parrish Middle School Tuesday morning. Summer Street NE between Market Street and D Street is currently blocked to traffic. The lockdown has been lifted but extra security is on hand at both schools, according to a statement by Salem-Keizer Public Schools. Salem police officers surrounded an individual barricaded in a home on the 1000 block of Summer Street NE. Shortly before 10 a.m., officers used a flash-bang device and are now working to communicate with the individual. More information will be posted when available. Summer Street Capital Partners has sold Apple Valley Waste, a waste-collection business based in West Virginia. The Buffalo-based private equity firm bought Apple Valley, a provider of solid waste collection, recycling and disposal services, in 2011. Since then, Apple Valley has completed 16 acquisitions, expanding its presence in the Mid-Atlantic region. "We are proud to have supported the team at Apple Valley, who grew a small, local provider into a community-based solid waste and recycling resource throughout the Mid-Atlantic region," said Brian D'Amico, a partner at Summer Street. Summer Street sold the business to Gold Medal Group, a New Jersey-based waste and recycling services company that also operates in the Mid-Atlantic. Terms were not disclosed. ... ## Everything you need to know about Summer Streets 2018

AUGUST 2, 2018 METRO LEAVE A COMMENT

For three Saturdays in August, one of New York's busiest boulevards becomes a car-free paradise of outdoor fun. Summer Streets 2018 will stretch from the Brooklyn Bridge to Central Park once again with seven miles of outdoor fun like a 165-foot zipline, a rock climbing wall, a dog agility course, free fitness classes and even a Citi Bike Museum. Sadly, its star attraction of recent years, the giant Vita Coco Beach water slide, isn't returning for

Seven displaced in Summer Street fire

JULY 7, 2018 UNIONLEADER LEAVE A COMMENT

By TODD FEATHERS New Hampshire Union

Leader July 07. 2018 5:49PM MANCHESTER — A fire believed to have been caused by the improper disposal of smoking materials displaced seven people from a Summer Street house Saturday afternoon. There were no injuries as a result of the one-alarm blaze, according to the Manchester Fire Department, but it did cause an estimated $35,000 in smoke and water damage to three units in the building.
